January 6, 2016.

Every morning I wake up, and start my day off with a third step prayer and the seventh step prayer. I almost have pages 86, 87 and 88 memorized by heart and I attempt to recite them as well. When I arrived to Alcoholics Anonymous, this time, I had no idea, how to pray, who God was or wasn't; I did not know what I wanted for my life. I did know that I wanted to die. I knew I hated myself and I was convinced that no one, including my two daughters wanted me around. I had spent many holidays alone. My daughters lived with my parents and tried their best to ignore the things everyone said about their mom. I was not allowed to sleep there and they were not allowed to open the door for me at night. I showed up most mornings to take them to school, trashed, under the influence of whatever kept me up all night. It hurts to say it today but back then no one knew anything different.

My parents had never seen me be a sober or present daughter, my girls had never seen me be a sober and present mom. All any of us ever knew was me drunk, high, wasted and barely holding it together. On January 6, 2016 I went to Charlie's which is now called Cenikor, and it was not the first time, but by that point I knew I did not want to live anymore and with every attempt I had been given to die, that was not happening either. I knew that I needed to change everything because I had attempted the program before but I had no idea, how that was going to work or how that was going to look. On that day I didn't even believe that it would work, I felt that powerless, hopeless, miserable and desperate. King Alcohol had definitely beaten me!

I arrived at 6am by getting a ride from another AA member. I posted on Facebook, "Starting my new journey", with all the false optimism I could muster up. I was at the end of my rope, the last house on the block. My so-called friends had shunned me and my family had long given up on me. I had nowhere else to go. I did not make the full 30 days of treatment. My delusional thoughts and mental convolution, distorted my reality. I believed things that were not true. I saw things that were not there. Only by the grace of God and good sponsorship did I make it to a sober living home. My emotions were a roller coaster. Thankfully my sponsor kept me on track. She gave me simple instructions; Get on your knees and ask God to keep you sober. Read pages 86, 87 and 88 out of the big book and make a meeting daily. Make a sober phone call daily and then get on your knees at night to thank God for keeping you sober that day. I lived by these suggestions at the beginning and I try my best to do them today! I found a home group. My Home Group is the Hilltoppers group in Corpus Christi, Texas. I should say my home group found me! They opened their ears, their hearts and so many of their arms to me. They hugged me and showed up for me. I learned what unconditional love was in that room. In the beginning I showed up with scrambled emotions, delusions, mentally unstable, a hot mess and most times half dressed. They told me to keep coming back. The women surrounded me. Talk to me after the meetings to give me advise about my children, my parents, my family and even my sober house. They invited me to lunch with them and to their homes for coffee. These women came to my daughter's graduation party to support me and to comfort me. Today I know that it was all through the grace of God. I was meeting with my sponsor weekly. She told me things like, You will find a relationship with a higher power that you will come to rely on to keep you sober by working the steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. She said when you sit across another alcoholic and read the big book God comes and He controls that time. I continued working the steps and today I have the honor and privilege to pass this on to other women.

This year, January 6, 2023, I will have seven years sober. Most days I am absolutely grateful. I have a beautiful life. My daughters are my world and I am theirs.
My mom is my best friend. I know today I have a life that I do not deserve. I know so many amazing people that have lost the fight to this disease and my heart breaks every time I think of them. Sometime I wonder, " Why me?

I get to go out to the treatment centers and spread the message of Alcoholics Anonymous.
I get to go out the women's sober homes to pick up the newcomers. I have to tell them what a deadly disease this is and sometimes I have to be a little too serious about AA. That is what was so freely given to me. I love this program! I love how it has absolutely changed my life without my permission and in ways I would have never imagined.

Gratefully yours,
Jennifer R. N.

CBIA Appreciates Ongoing Support

Group Contributions

CBIA would like to express their gratitude to the AA Groups that support us all during the year, it is our second biggest source of revenue. We hope for continued Group Contributions to help support CBIA in 2023.

Individual Contributions

We are grateful that individual members of our community have made contributions to Coastal Bend Intergroup. You can donate on the Birthday Club list by just sending in a donation or drop it by the office. We are pleased with how many do send contributions throughout the year and we will continue to hope for ongoing individual support through 2023.

Fundraisers

Texas law allows 501c3 non-profit corporations like CBIA to have only two fundraiser events. The 2022/2023 Coastal Bend Jamboree Committee will hold their event February 3th-5th 2023. We hope that you support this event by attending and participating in the raffles and Silent Auction. Pre-registrations are appreciated since money is needed to prepare for the event. Donations to Silent Auction and to Raffle are a huge help in raising money. Don't forget to donate to Scholarship so that someone less fortunate can experience this great event. A big thank you to the Committee for all the hard work they are doing to make this a successful event.

We look forward to 2023 and whatever other fundraising event happens this year!

Where Are We Now?

	Actual Dec 2022
Contributions	$31,490.25
Gross Sales	$9,311.71
Cost of Goods Sold	($6,389.94)
Gross Gain	$34,412.02
Total Expenses	$36,863.37
Interest Income	6.18
Net Gain	$-2,445.17

What Has the CBIA Board of Trustees Done?

We continue to work reduced hours at the office to keep costs down. The hours & payroll are reduced by 25% so Terry (AM) and Rita (PM) will work three hours rather than four each workday. Our hours in 2023 continue at this time to be 8:30 – 11:30 AM and 2:00 – 5:00 PM Monday through Friday.

The board did decide after receiving the $12,875.28 Jamboree contribution to move $3,000 of that money back to the Prudent Reserve (Savings) from the check. The $3000 was borrowed in the summer of 2020 to keep the office running during the Pandemic.

What Can a Group Do to Help?

The AA World Service pamphlet, Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix, suggests that AA Groups in areas served by an intergroup office distribute funds in excess of prudent reserve as shown below.

Thus, it is up to each group conscience to determine what (if anything) it contributes.

Your group might want to re-consider its contribution priorities temporarily. GSO and Intergroup have a bigger slice of the pie because they have much higher overhead (salaries, office space, etc.) than the other service entities. You might want to consider giving more to Intergroup and GSO and less to other service entities. Also, if your group has money earmarked that can be sent in earlier, that would be helpful.
